Congratulations! You've completed the reading of the Old Testament. Since the Old Testament is about  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the Bible, it has taken nearly  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the year to read it. Thanks be to God! Now tomorrow we enter the New Testament, God willing. By the way, we're about two weeks ahead of schedule. We'll read the New Testament in a little smaller portions so as to help careful reading. Again, congratulations!

Congratulations and Blessings to You. You have read through the Bible. Whatever level you chose you lived a discipline of reading that I'm certain will be of great benefit to your life with God in Christ. Way to go! Your servant in Christ, Pastor Don

FROM PASTOR DON

Have you ever had to read a novel in school? You say that was too long ago to remember! Or perhaps you enjoy reading books, maybe you regularly do so. Well, the most beloved, best-selling book of all ages is waiting to be opened both by those who don't like to read and those who love reading, and everyone in-between.

This beloved best-seller is the Holy Bible. Actually it's not just a book through, but an entire library of books, 66 in all! These 66 books are divided up into 21,173 verses, 1,189 chapters, totaling over 770,000 words. If one is, therefore, encouraged to read the Bible this thought must be kept in mind. After all, one usually just doesn't go into a library and begin reading at random. Some kind of direction is needed.

A plan has been developed for us to use to enter the Bible this year as a group, which will give us this needed direction. If one will choose a track (Option A or B or C) and follow the assignments, at the end of the year you will have day by day moved through the Bible. While some will have read every word, everyone will have read some. Our goal is simply to get as many of us as possible to daily read the Bible.

BASIC OBJECTIVES AND CONSIDERATIONS FOR OUR PLAN

The main objective is to get us to read the Bible.

Built into this plan is the idea that not all people will want to read the same amount. No matter what option is chosen, all readers will be sharing in the same discussion since all assignments are harmonized.

When possible I tried to keep narratives together, starting and ending where I thought best for understanding and continuity. Before beginning a new day's reading, a review or a simple recollection of what one read previously is helpful.

Those choosing Option A

Reading the Bible all the way through in one year takes commitment and perseverance. Lagging behind is dangerous. There are 1,150 pages in my Bible, which means an average of over 3 pages a day, which is not much really. But my experience having done this several times is that there is always something fighting against such resolve. So realize you must enter this with prayer, and use other readers for support, and give them yours.

Those Choosing Option B

If after reading your selected verses you wish to read more, read on your own from the additional verses/chapters in Option A. You may want to ask yourselves why the particular passage chosen is significant.

Those Choosing Option C

Although you will be reading only a few verses, you still have the challenge of reading the Bible daily. I've found developing a good habit like this seems to be more difficult than acquiring bad ones! I never have figured that out. Anyway, in your daily reading you have the opportunity to read a manageable amount of Scriptures in a prayerful and contemplative way.
